

Peter Knott, PR and Communications Trustee

Pete Knott has an MSc from the University of the West of England where he studied Business Management. Since then he has worked as a Marketing and Communications Consultant. Pete started his career at the social media consultancy Immediate Future, where he worked with Motorola, Orange Business and IBM. For the last 7 years

Pete has worked at the reputation management consultancy Lansons. At Lansons Pete focuses on helping Governments, companies and organisations such as Abbott Diabetes, Aviva, Legal & General and Mazars build, manage and protect their reputation through marketing and communications.

Pete is passionate about finding ways to empower people to talk about their mental health issues and enjoys participating in fundraising initiatives. Pete became a Trustee of Mental Health Research UK in 2021.